FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The 4th Dimension Movie, LLC is proud to announce that its first feature film, The 4th Dimension, was presented with a Grand Jury Honorable Mention Award at the 2006 CineVegas Film Festival. The film World Premiered in Las Vegas on Monday June 12, 2006 at the Brenden Theatres in the Palms Casino Resort in front of a near sellout crowd, and was followed by a sold out second screening on Wednesday June 14, 2006.

The 4th Dimension, written and directed by Philadelphia residents Tom Mattera and David Mazzoni, was one of the 30 films selected to participate in the 2006 CineVegas Film Festival. It was in competition as part of the “Jackpot Premieres” section of the festival and marks the first feature film for the writers/directors, and for fellow Philadelphia native, producer Daniel M. Kalai.

The 4th Dimension has also been officially selected to make its International Premiere in the First Film World Competition Category of the World Film Festival in Montreal in August of 2006.

The psychological drama is a meditative examination into the mind of an introverted genius who obsesses to solve the complexity of time. It is an exploration of the dark and lonely world between dreams and reality.

If you would like more information about The 4th Dimension, or to schedule an interview with the filmmakers, please call Daniel M. Kalai (Producer) at 215.518.8374, or email Daniel at dmk@4thdmovie.com.
